Mark Gibbons

Mark owns and operates Gibbons Brothers Dairy located in Lewiston, Utah, with his family. They milk 600 cows and farm 1200 acres of ground. He raises alfalfa, silage corn, wheat, and barley. Mark has been President of the Dairy Producers of Utah, President of the Governors Agriculture Advisory Board, and has been involved with Western States Dairy Producers Trade Association, Utah State FFA Foundation Board and various other farm-related committees. He spends a lot of his time working for farmers and trying to improve the future for producers and the ag industry.

He has been married for 40 years to his wife Shanna. He has three sons and loves spending time with his eleven grandchildren. Mark is active in his church and community, and has served on the City Council and Planning and Zoning for Lewiston City.
