This Secretarial natural disaster designation allows the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) Farm Service Agency (FSA) to extend much-needed emergency credit to producers recovering from natural disasters through emergency loans. Emergency loans can be used to meet various recovery needs including the replacement of essential items such as equipment or livestock, reorganization of a farming operation or the refinance of certain debts. FSA will review the loans based on the extent of losses, security available and repayment ability.

Impacted Area: South Dakota

Triggering Disaster: Drought that occurred on June 5, 2021 and continuing.

Application Deadline: June 6, 2022

Primary Area Eligible: Pine Ridge Indian Reservation

Contiguous Counties Also Eligible:

South Dakota: Bennett, Custer, Fall River, Jackson, Mellette, Oglala Lakota, Pennington and Todd

Nebraska: Cherry, Dawes and Sheridan
