Get Started with FSA

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) prohibits discrimination in all its programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, and where applicable, sex, marital status, familial status, parental status, religion, sexual orientation, genetic information, political beliefs, reprisal, or because all or part of an individual's income is derived from any public assistance program. (Not all bases apply to all programs.) Persons with disabilities who require alternative means for communication of program information (Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.) should contact USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TDD). To file a complaint of discrimination, write to USDA, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, DC 20250-9410, or call (800) 795-3272 (voice) or (202) 720-6382 (TDD).

USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer and lender.

Easy Steps

to Get Started with FSA

The Farm Service Agency offers financial assistance to help start a farm, expand, improve natural resources or recover from natural disasters.

1

Contact Us

Contact your local FSA County Office to schedule an appointment:

Find your local FSA office at <http://offices.usda.gov>. For more information, visit the FSA website, at www.fsa.usda.gov.

Consult With Us

We will meet with you, review your documents and register your farm with FSA, which allows you to apply for programs. We can discuss what programs and loans can help you to accomplish your goals. Once registered, you also will receive monthly newsletters, have access to various resources and be eligible to vote in FSA County Committee elections.

4

Apply

After we determine your eligibility to participate in FSA programs, we walk you through the application process. More information may be needed depending on the program.
